Nua is a little girl who loves to eat. But she only likes to eat certain foods. She loves to eat fruit, but she doesn't like to eat vegetables. Her parents have tried to get her to eat vegetables, but she always refuses.

One day, Nua's parents decide to take her to the farmer's market. They hope that seeing all of the fresh vegetables will make her want to try some new ones. Nua is excited to go to the farmer's market. She loves to look at all of the different fruits and vegetables.

As they walk through the market, Nua sees a table full of colorful vegetables. She sees carrots, celery, broccoli, and tomatoes. She even sees some vegetables that she's never seen before. Nua is curious about the new vegetables, but she's still not sure if she wants to try them.

Nua's parents encourage her to try a new vegetable. They tell her that she might like it if she just gives it a try. Nua decides to be brave and try a bite of broccoli. She takes a bite and her eyes widen. She can't believe how delicious it is!

Nua takes another bite of broccoli and then another. She loves it! She can't believe that she's been missing out on such a delicious vegetable. Nua's parents are so happy to see that she's finally eating vegetables. They know that she's going to be much healthier now that she's eating a variety of foods.

Nua continues to eat her broccoli and then tries some of the other vegetables on the table. She likes them all! She can't believe that she's been missing out on so many delicious foods. Nua's parents are so happy to see that she's finally eating vegetables. They know that she's going to be much healthier now that she's eating a variety of foods.

Nua's story is a great reminder that it's important to try new foods. You never know what you might be missing out on! So next time you see a new vegetable, don't be afraid to give it a try. You might just be surprised at how much you like it.
