From the front lines of the emergency room comes a collection of gripping, heart-wrenching, and life-affirming stories that offer a unique perspective on the human experience.

In this book, you'll meet:

- The young woman who comes to the ER after a car accident, only to learn that she's pregnant.
- The elderly man who comes in with chest pain, and whose story reveals a lifetime of love and loss.
- The homeless man who comes in with a gunshot wound, and whose story challenges our assumptions about who deserves our compassion.

These are just a few of the many unforgettable characters you'll meet in this book. Their stories will stay with you long after you finish reading them.

If you're a fan of medical dramas, or if you're simply interested in the human experience, then you'll love this book. Stories From Inside and Outside the ER is a powerful and moving collection of stories that will make you laugh, cry, and think.
