This step-by-step guide will guide you through the entire process, from gathering materials to applying the finishing touches. Along the way, you'll receive expert tips and tricks to ensure your cabinet turns out both stunning and durable.

Step 1: Gather Your Materials

- Red oak or mahogany lumber (1-inch thick)
- Plywood (1/2-inch thick)
- Glass (for the display case)

- Wood screws
- Wood glue
- Sandpaper
- Stain or paint (optional)
- Finishing wax

Step 2: Create the Frame

1. Cut the lumber into the following pieces:
 - 4 side pieces (36 inches long, 10 inches wide)
 - 2 top pieces (18 inches long, 10 inches wide)
 - 2 bottom pieces (18 inches long, 10 inches wide)
- Assemble the frame using wood glue and screws. Make sure the corners are square.

Step 3: Build the Display Case

1. Cut the plywood into the following pieces:
 - 2 back pieces (18 inches long, 36 inches wide)
 - 2 side pieces (10 inches long, 36 inches wide)
 - 1 top piece (18 inches long, 10 inches wide)
- Assemble the display case using wood glue and screws.
- Insert the glass into the display case.

Step 4: Attach the Display Case to the Frame

1. Center the display case on the frame.
2. Secure the display case to the frame using wood glue and screws.

Step 5: Create the Doors

1. Cut the lumber into the following pieces:
 - 4 door stiles (36 inches long, 2 inches wide)
 - 4 door rails (18 inches long, 2 inches wide)
- Assemble the doors using wood glue and screws. Make sure the corners are square.

Step 6: Attach the Doors to the Cabinet

1. Center the doors on the cabinet.
2. Secure the doors to the cabinet using wood glue and screws.
3. Install hinges and handles.

Step 7: Sand and Finish

1. Sand the entire cabinet with sandpaper, starting with a coarse grit and working your way up to a fine grit.
2. Apply stain or paint if desired. Allow the finish to dry completely.
3. Apply a coat of finishing wax to protect the finish.

Congratulations! You've Built Your Own Mission Display Cabinet

Your beautiful Mission display cabinet is now complete. Not only will it serve as a decorative addition to your home, but it will also provide a functional place to display your prized possessions. With its timeless design and sturdy construction, this cabinet will be enjoyed by your family for generations to come.
